PARTICIPANTS' RESPONSIBILITIES:

Compulsory equipment

The display of the race number on the bike and on the back in a visible and unaltered manner is mandatory. The number must not be rolled up.

The competition number is strictly personal and non-transferable to third parties, under penalty of immediate exclusion from the event and disqualification for the following year.

Participants without a bib number and/or with another person's bib number have no insurance cover and may be legally punished in the event of an accident.

We remind you that the exchange of bib numbers is a criminal offence.

Minimum safety equipment:

Participants are obliged to carry the following minimum safety equipment with them for the duration of the event

- GPS device and/or smartphone with GPS functionality with sufficient power reserve to complete the route
- approved helmet to be worn at all times
- repair kit (multitool) and puncture repair kit (inner tube and/or patches, levers, pump and/or inflator)
- suitable clothing

GENERAL RULES AND WARNINGS

The organiser is relieved from any liability connected with the holding of the event and, in particular, from

- accidents occurring to participants or caused by participants
- losses on the route by participants
- accidents of any kind suffered by participants
- any damage to participants' bikes
- thefts occurring to participants

By registering for the event, the participant acknowledges:

- to be aware that the trails are not fully signposted, so it is necessary to refer to the GPX tracks
- that he or she travels at his or her own risk and is considered to be on a free personal excursion with no extra rights compared to other trail and road users
- that there is no mechanical assistance service provided by the organisers along the route, nor is there a recovery service for those who have retired and their vehicles
- that there is no obligation on the part of the organisers to search for participants on the route and that he/she undertakes to inform the organisers of his/her withdrawal by calling or sending a text message to the telephone number indicated by the organisers.

By signing the registration form, each participant guarantees his/her own conduct during and after the event; he/she also declares that he/she is in good physical condition and in possession of a valid membership card and medical certificate for the year of the competition; that he/she has read and approved the following regulations.

This signature has the legal value of self-certification in relation to what has been declared.

It should be noted that the event takes place, in part, on roads open to traffic and therefore all participants are obliged to respect the highway code.

The event will take place in all weather conditions

Participants are also required:

- adequate physical preparation for the chosen route
- a good knowledge in the use of GPS and orientation
- to assist anyone in difficulty along the route
- to respect and keep clean the places crossed, avoiding littering along the route and disposing of it in the appropriate collection containers.

For anything not covered by these regulations, the general rules of the F.C.I. National Amateur Sector and U.C.I. provisions apply.

The participant exonerates the G.C. Fausto Coppi from all liability of the organisers and collaborators, for accidents or damage to persons or property (including those left unattended), which may occur before, during and after the event or as a result of the event.

Attach the race number in a visible and non-rolled place on the handlebars and the jersey number on the back.

The G.C. Fausto Coppi reserves the right to exclude athletes who misbehave before, during and after the event.

CANCELLATION OF EVENT

If, due to force majeure or an event beyond the organisation's control, the event does not take place, the participation fee will neither be refunded nor considered valid for the following year. However, the right to participate in the next edition will be recognised: this right must be exercised by means of a new regular registration with payment in accordance with the regulations.

In addition, if, due to force majeure or an event not attributable to the organiser, the event should not take place on the set date, but could be rescheduled to a later date in the current year, the organiser reserves the right to inform the entrants of the new date of the event, without a minimum period of notice; in this case, each entrant shall have the option of opting to take part in the event on the new date, without any further charges, except for any administrative charges that may be communicated, or of retaining the right to take part in the next event, in which case making a new entry with regular payment, as provided for in this article.

VARIATIONS

The organisation reserves the right to make any changes to the route and regulations at any time. The website www.novecolli.it is the official information organ of the event, therefore all official announcements will be made on the website.

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA AND USE OF PARTICIPANTS' IMAGE

Participation in the event entails the processing of participants' personal data. By registering for the event, participants authorise the processing of their personal data by the organising association ASD GC Fausto Coppi and their transfer to third parties for purposes connected with the event.

The participant acknowledges and accepts that, in view of the public nature of the event, the purpose and services of broadcasting and marketing the event's video photography, and the impossibility of selectively restricting video photography, in order to register and participate in the event it is necessary to authorise the filming and use of one's image in the manner and for the purposes indicated in these regulations.

EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

By applying to take part in the event, each participant declares that he/she has read and approved these regulations and accepts each and every part of them
